SYNOPSIS

Carmen (Maribel Verdú) lives on the outskirts of Madrid with her husband Carlos (Antonio de la Torre). She's an ordinary housewife who's devoted to her family and he's a construction worker and soccer fan who lives and breathes for Real Madrid. One day their routine lives change forever. At a wedding reception, Carmen's cousin Pepe (José Mota), an amateur hypnotist, gives a demonstration. He asks for a volunteer from the audience and a skeptical Carlos agrees. The next morning Carlos starts behaving strangely - something went wrong and now he's possessed by a spirit. Together the cousins begin a surreal, comical investigation to bring him back, while Carmen starts to feel curiously attracted to her “new” husband.

DEL DIRECTOR DE "BLANCAIEVES"

ABRACADABRA

UNA COMEDIA HIPNÓTICA DE
PABLO BERGER

Produced by Arcadia Motion Pictures, the title opened in Spain this past August 4th to positive reviews both in its home territory — “stunning, hypnotizing” trumpeted ABC — and in international media — “a technically impressive mix of the commercial and the personal” described the Hollywood Reporter. The film has garnered over $2 million in the Spanish box office to date

"Blancanieves", Berger's previous film, took home ten Spanish Academy (Goya) awards in 2013 (including Best Picture), the Ariel award for Best Iberoamerican Film, the Silver Shell for best actress, and the Special Jury Prize at the 2013 San Sebastian Film Festival. It also represented Spain at the 2013 Oscars and enjoyed successful runs in theatrical markets around the world, including the United States.
