LOS ANGELES
LATINO INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL
HOLLYWOOD, CA | JULY 17-25, 2011

Call for Entries: Los Angeles Latino International Film Festival 2011

The 15th Los Angeles Latino International Film Festival \(LALIFF\) is now accepting entries for the 2011 festival, to be held in Hollywood from July 17-25. One of the most prominent Latino International Film Festivals in the USA, the festival promotes the richness and diversity of Latin Cinema by showcasing films from the United States, Latin America, the Caribbean, Spain and Portugal. LALIFF celebrates the work of existing and emerging Latino talent while creating a bridge between filmmakers and the film industry in Hollywood. LALIFF serves as a catalyst for the promotion and distribution of Latino films.

LALIFF presents feature films, documentaries, shorts and special screenings. The films showcase a wide variety of themes by Latino filmmakers, producers, writers and actors, as well as movies that depict Latino culture. It is a competitive festival with prizes and a venue where filmmakers come together with buyers, distributors and Latino and general audiences. An Industry Office facilitates meetings and keeps a video library for Hollywood executives. LALIFF also offers industry workshops, panels, networking receptions, educational programs, and hosts some of the best Galas in Hollywood.

EGEDA has been supporting and sponsoring LALIFF for the last 8 years as part of its program of activities to support and promote producers and the film industry and its objective is to serve as a liaison to facilitate relations between the American film industry and those of Spain and Latin America.

The Los Angeles Latino International Film Festival is a qualifying festival for the Narrative and Animated Short Film categories of the Academy Awards.

Submissions are now open; the new form is online. The early bird deadline is May 2, and the final Submission deadline is May 27. Submissions should be sent regular post to our P.O. Box.
